Recognizing Racial Discrimination

Racial discrimination is treating someone unfairly because of their race, ethnicity, or skin color.

- Treating someone unfairly at school, work, or in public because of their race or ethnicity.
- Using racial slurs, offensive jokes, or stereotypes about a racial or cultural group.
- Excluding someone from activities, groups, or opportunities because of their race.
- Assuming things about a person's intelligence, behavior, or background based only on their race.
- Mocking or criticizing someone's accent, cultural traditions, or appearance.
- Treating people differently in rules, discipline, or expectations because of their race.
- Ignoring or dismissing someone's experiences with racism.
