STALKING IS...

...a sex-based crime and a form of sexual harassment.

... often minimized or dismissed as harmless behavior but it causes fear, anxiety & emotional distress for victims.

STALKING CAN...

... escalate into violence over time so it should be taken very seriously.

... in many cases, involve current or former dating partners, classmates, co-workers, friends, or family members, and in some cases, strangers.

Stalking frequently occurs during or after the end of a relationship.

If you or someone you care about is being stalked, please report it to a trusted adult.
Your Title IX Coordinator can provide you with support and resources.
